

Congratulations

DR. NANCY KWANGWA

Appointment to the National Library and Documentation Service Council

On behalf of the Women's University in Africa Board of Trustees, Chancellor, Council, Vice Chancellor, Management, Staff and Students, we extend our Management, Staff, and Students, we extend our heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Nancy Kwangwa on her appointment as a Member of the National Library and Documentation Service (NLDS) Board.

This appointment made in terms of Section 11 of the Public Entities Corporate Governance Act [Chapter 10:33] as read with section 10 of the National Library and Documentation Service Act [Chapter 25: 10], is an honour approved by His Excellency the President, Cde. E.D. Mnangagwa and, was appointed by the Minister of Primary and Secondary Education, Honourable Dr. T. Moyo. The NLDS Council plays an advisory role in general matters related to the operation of the Service and in the making and amendment of regulations, as stated in the referenced Act.

This appointment highlights Dr. Kwangwa's distinguished thought leadership, professional excellence, and sustained contributions to the advancement of library and information services in Zimbabwe. It further reflects the Women's University in Africa's meaningful role in national development and its active participation in policy and knowledge discourse.

We are confident that Dr. Kwangwa's professionalism, unwavering commitment and extensive expertise will drive impactful progress within the NLDS. Her wealth of experience in contemporary library practice, training, research and leadership positions her well to contribute strategically to the growth and transformation of the sector.

We congratulate Dr. Kwangwa on this well-deserved appointment and wish her a successful and impactful tenure.
